November 2015 Newsletter

Hello Atlantic City Chippers,

Summer of 2015 is definitely over and the last meeting of the ACCCC, (Atlantic City Casino Collectibles Club) for the year will be held on Sunday November 15, 2015. The meeting will be at Bally's Hotel and Casino and the doors will open at 11:00am. It is expected to be sunny and bright in Atlantic City so everyone should be sure to come out and enjoy the last event of the year.

Recap of the September 20, 2015 Meeting

- The trading session started on time at 11:00am.
- Guest speaker Fred Puggi spoke, and spoke, and continued to speak on casino philosophies. Fred did a wonderful job. Thank you Fred!
- Installation of the new officers.
- There were 51 club members present and 4 guests.
- 50/50 Winners: $75.00 - Rob Montebello, $45.00 - Angie Montebello, $25.00 - Rob Montebello, who insisted on a redraw, and then $25.00 - Ricky Pushkin.

Rumor Control

- Revel owner, Glenn Straub, is being fined $1000.00 a day for ignoring fire codes.
- Atlantic City Sewerage Co. is suing to end Revel's sewer service.
- Stockton University is selling the former Showboat Casino to Philadelphia developer Bart Blatstein for $22 million. Not bad at all since Stockton acquired the property for $18 million.
- AC casinos reported a gross operating profit of $147.5million in July, August and September, up 7.2 percent from the same period a year ago.
- AC casinos Resorts, Borgata, and Tropicana are being fined by the New Jersey Division of Gaming Enforcement for allowing underage gamblers to place wagers.

Club Notes

- The 24th Annual CCGTCC Convention in Las Vegas will be June 23-25, 2016. Book your room NOW!
- Negotiations have begun between Bally's and ACCCC for potential dates for the 2016 calendar year.
- Starting in January 2016 all ACCCC meetings will include the minutes from the previous meeting, and a full Treasurer's report.

Trivia Question: Donald Trump has been involved with four casinos in Atlantic City. Which one did he build from the very beginning: Trump Taj Mahal, Trump World's Fair, Trump Marina or Trump Plaza?

See you on the Boardwalk, Happy Chipping Everybody,
